

IPOPI 8th PID FORUM

Don't Brexit on rare disease patients – the case of primary immunodeficiencies

Tuesday 24 January 2017 (14.00-16.00)
A5G-305, European Parliament

- 14.00 Welcome address
Seb Dance MEP
- 14.05 Welcome address
Carlos Zorrinho MEP
- 14.10 Overview of current EU framework for Rare Diseases – lessons learnt in the last decade
Johan Prévot, Executive Director, IPOPI
- 14.20 Brexit what do we have to gain & lose? – the British perspective
Dr. Siobhan Burns, Reader and Consultant in Immunology, University College London, Royal Free Hospital (UK)
Sarita Workman, Specialist Sister in Immunology Research, Royal Free Hospital (UK)
- 14.40 Policy-maker perspective – Catherine Bearder MEP
- 14.45 The Norwegian way
Eva Brox, President, PIO (Norway)
- 14.55 Brexit what do we have to gain & lose? – the European perspective
Martha Gouldsbury, Irish Primary Immunodeficiency Association (IPIA)
Prof. Martin Van Hagen, Head of the Clinical Immunology department, Erasmus MC (The Netherlands)
Dr. Susana Lopes da Silva, Centro de Imunodeficiências Primárias, HSM / FMUL / IMM, Lisboa
- 15.25 PLUS – Amanda Bok, EHC - Impact for the RDs community at large
- 15.35 Discussion
- 15.55 Conclusions