

Prof. Graham Davies

Graham Davies has been Consultant Paediatric Immunologist Great Ormond Street Hospital, London since 1997. He is Honorary Professor of Clinical Immunology at UCL Great Ormond Street Institute of Child Health. His research interests are in the management of primary immunodeficiency disorders. He established and directs the only programme in Europe of thymic transplantation for patients with complete athymia.