Dr. Leila Jeddane

After completing her PhD program on Immunogenetics, Dr. Jeddane integrated diagnostic laboratories in Morocco. Since her student days, she has been actively involved in the Hajar Association and in the Board of the Moroccan Society for Primary Immunodeficiencies, and the African Society for Immunodeficiencies (ASID). Currently, Dr. Jeddane is the ASID President, and works in the Laboratoire National Mohamed VI (LNM6) as the scientific manager, to develop specialised IVD in Morocco.
