Mr. Johan Prevot

Johan Prevot is a healthcare professional with over 22 years of experience in patient advocacy and health policy. He currently serves as the Executive Director of the International Patient Organisation for Primary Immunodeficiencies (IPOPI), where he leads global activities and advocacy campaigns. Johan is actively involved in various healthcare organizations, working to improve patient access to early diagnosis and treatment for rare diseases. He has been a strong advocate for equitable access to plasma therapies and played a key role in launching the International Neonatal Screening Day. Johan Prevot is committed to collaborating with stakeholders to achieve common objectives and priorities in healthcare.
