Mr. Manzi Ndamukunze

Manzi Ndamukunze is a dedicated father who, after his son was diagnosed with the rare genetic disorder William syndrome (WS), founded "Centre-Alliance" in Kigali. The center aims to raise awareness about rare diseases, provide support to affected children and their families, and help them develop essential life skills. Professionally, Manzi is a finance consultant with expertise in banking and microfinance. Through his work at "Centre-Alliance," he combines his passion for helping children with rare diseases with his professional experience to create a nurturing and inclusive environment.
