

Ms Narumon Jitchanwichai (Jib)

Jib is a mother of two sons diagnosed with X-linked agammaglobulinemia (XLA), residing in Thailand. She has been a member of the Thai Patient Organisation for Primary Immunodeficiency (ThaiPOPI) for nearly nine years. Actively engaged in organisational activities, she shares her personal experiences with doctors as a case study and raises awareness among both ThaiPOPI members and the broader Thai community.