

Corazon Aquino

Corazon Aquino is a Partnership Specialist and passionate about creating and sustaining partnerships for development, particularly access to quality healthcare and education. She has over 12 years of experience in partnership development, stakeholder engagement and mobilising resources to fund change in community health systems. Her experience and expertise cover thought leadership, advocacy, and multiple partner engagements (government included) which have led to significant contributions and reforms in the areas of education, health, poverty reduction and women empowerment.

Corazon is currently a Partnerships Manager at Amref Health Africa. Prior to this, she served as a Donor Relations Manager at Amref Kenya's Country Office and Fundraising Manager at Actionaid International Kenya where she led the establishment of a local fundraising programme.