

Ali Manasri

Ali Nasser Manasri is the president of the Algerian Association for People with Primary Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AAPS) and one of the founders and advocates for the rights of this group in Algeria. He was able to establish this association despite administrative difficulties, even though he himself suffers from primary immunodeficiency syndrome.