

Miriam Ferreira

Miriam Ferreira joined IPOPI in 2021 and currently serves as IPOPI's NMO Programmes Manager. In this role, she focuses on engaging and supporting the growth of IPOPI's National Member Organisations (NMOs) worldwide. She collaborates closely with IPOPI's Senior Manager for Health Policy and Advocacy to shape impactful health policies and awareness campaigns. Additionally, she takes an active role in the organisation of IPOPI's educational and skill-building meetings at the international, regional, and national levels, ensuring that knowledge and expertise are shared effectively within the community.

Prior to joining IPOPI, she worked at a law firm in Lisbon, Portugal. Miriam holds a bachelor's degree in law from institutions in Portugal and Macau, bringing a strong legal background to her role. She is deeply committed to working closely with IPOPI's National Member Organisations (NMOs), fostering their development, and ensuring their success.
