

Martine Pergent

Martine Pergent has served as President of IPOPI since 2018, following eight years as Vice-President. A dedicated patient advocate, she works to raise awareness of primary immunodeficiencies, improve access to early diagnosis and personalised treatment, and support the development of patient organisations worldwide, particularly in low- and middle-income countries. She is committed to ensuring patients play an active role in healthcare decision-making.