

Hala Maadad Takieddine

Hala Maadad Takieddine is an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) credentialed by the International Coaching Federation (ICF), a certified trainer, and a group and team coach. Specialising in empowerment, personal growth, and wellbeing, she supports individuals and groups in developing self-awareness, strengthening emotional resilience, and unlocking their potential to create meaningful change.

As President and Co-founder of the Association of Lebanese Patients with Primary Immunodeficiency (ALPPI), she brings a valuable patient-advocacy perspective to her work, with a particular passion for fostering self-empowerment and wellbeing among people living with chronic conditions.